DENNIS J. CANTY ARRAIGNED Trial to Take Place About the Middle of April.

Dennis J. Canty was arraigned beore Justice Bingham, in Criminal Court No. I yesterday, under the Indictment returned by the grand jury last week tharging him with the murder of George M. Rye on the 15th of this month.

To the usual query Canty responded "not guilty," in a clear, calm voice. District Attorney Henry E. Davis anounced that he would call the matter o the attention of the court within the ext few days to have a date set for rial, which it is expected will occur bout the middle of April.

canty was driven from the jall to the court house and found his aged mother waiting for him in the witness room. This is the first time, it is said, Canty and his mother have met since the shooting of Rye. Canty's sister and father-in-law also met him in the witness room after he came out of court.

Court this morning. Want a Receiver Appointed.

A bill in equity was yesterday filed by Elizabeth K. Riley against the Anacostia and Potomac Railroad Company, asking and Potomac Railroad Company, asking that a receiver be appointed to take charge of the business of that company. It is alleged that the company is hoplessly insolvent; that many of its credit-ors are demanding payment which can-not be made, and a scramble is likely to ensue if the court does not intervene. President H. A. Griswold, in his answer, substantially admits the condition al-leged. It seems that both sides desire that a receiver should be appointed.
